Date Funded by TFN:	4/10/2018
Were you able to undertake your project as planned?	Yes
Can you describe and/or demonstrate the specific impact that TFN funding has had against your initial objectives?	Real-Talk programme is a schools-based initiative to empower young people at risk of social exclusion. Its ultimate aim is to support young people to be able to live fulfilled lives as active members of society. More immediate goals are to encourage retention and engagement at school, avoid involvement in criminal or aggressive behaviour, and promote good mental and physical wellbeing. The TFN funding contributed to the successful completion our pilot programme. The preliminary findings provide support for the capacity of the Real-Talk programme for young people who, for a variety of reasons, may be at risk of social exclusion. This includes positively influencing young people's sense of self (confidence, esteem, and awareness), supporting mental, emotional, and behavioural well-being, promoting physical health and supporting engagement with school. The pilot findings and existing evidence based provide suggest that the programme may influence its longer term goals of encouraging retention and engagement at school, avoiding involvement in criminal or aggressive behaviour, and promoting good mental and physical wellbeing.
